Rt:03/01, Lundong, Kutowinangun, Kebumen, Central Java, Indonesia.

A web based application developer and always trying to improve my skills in website development. I have experience developing websites such as financial accounting website, finance report, and landing page. I got a bachelor's degree at Amikom University Yogyakarta with a concentration in software developer. The beginning of my career was an Android Developer with several certificates that I got from "dicoding Indonesia", over time a few years ago I began to improve my skills in UI/ UX design and front- end website development with NextJs Framework until now.
